Safety Notice – Recall of Certain GE Dishwashers

Dear Customer:

The U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission and the General Electric Company (GE) have announced a recall of certain GE built-in dishwashers. According to GE's records, you purchased one or more of these products. Please read this notice carefully and call the GE Recall Hotline for a free repair if these dishwashers are included in the recall.

This recall includes 74,314 dishwashers manufactured from January 20, 2004 to October 4, 2004, with the following models: GSD5500G, GSD5560G, GSD5800G, GSD5900G, GSD5960G, EDW3000G, and EDW3060G, with serial numbers with the first letter A through T and the second letter G or model GSD5500G02WW with serial number VF. The serial number is important, as not all dishwashers with these model numbers are included. Look on the front left side of the dishwasher tub to find the model and serial number of your dishwashers.

These dishwashers were manufactured with an electronic control that may short out, overheat, and catch fire if one of the connectors to the control is heavily contaminated with dishwashing detergent solution. This contamination can occur during normal use.

There has been one case of a fire that escaped the dishwasher and caused minor property damage. There have been no injuries.

If you have any of these dishwashers in your stock or on your sales floor, quarantine them and stop selling them immediately. If you have multiple units for repair to schedule, please call 1-866-324-3732 between 8:00AM and 8:00PM Eastern Time Monday through Saturday.
